

Burton Celebratory Lunch

Burton & District Chamber Start-up Business of the Year

Examples of eligible businesses:

- A small business that has been trading for 2 years or less (as of 14 Nov 2024) and has a strong reputation.
- A new business that has quickly become successful.
- A business that has created jobs and/or contributed to the local community or economy.
- A business that might be using new technologies or developing new products or services.
- A business that is finding new ways to solve problems, have demonstrated initiative and drive in its new venture.

Burton & District Chamber's Future Face

Examples of eligible businesses:

- A young professional from 18-35 years of age that owns or works within a business.
- A young professional from 18-35 years of age who has started their own business.
- A young professional from 18-35 years of age who is expanding their operation, through growth, diversification, or innovation.
- A young professional from 18-35 years of age, who is going above and beyond in their role.
- A young professional from 18-35 years of age who is making a difference in the community through their work.

Burton & District Chamber Business of the Year

Examples of eligible businesses:

- A small or large business that has been trading for more than 2 years and has a strong reputation
- A new business that has overcome challenges and grown consistently.
- A business that has created jobs and contributed to the local economy.
- A business that is involved in community outreach programs.
- A business that is using new technologies or developing new products or services.
- A business that is finding new ways to solve problems.